

Honorable James Greenwood, CEO of BIO, Presented with 2015 Spindletop Capital Healthcare Achievement Award

HONORED FOR LIFETIME CONTRIBUTIONS TO HEALTHCARE AND LIFE SCIENCES

HOUSTON, TX – October 5, 2015 – Spindletop Capital is proud to announce today that the Honorable James C. Greenwood, President and CEO of the Biotechnology Industry Organization (BIO), is the 2015 recipient of the Spindletop Healthcare Achievement Award.

The Spindletop Capital Healthcare Achievement Award is given to outstanding healthcare leaders for their business and personal accomplishments in healthcare. For the last decade James Greenwood has led BIO, an organization which represents more than 1,000 biotechnology companies, academic institutions, state biotechnology centers and related organizations across the United States and more than 30 nations. BIO members are involved in the research and development of innovative healthcare, agricultural, industrial and environmental biotechnology products. BIO also produces the annual BIO International Convention, the world's largest gathering of the biotechnology industry, along with industry-leading investor and partnering meetings held around the world. Prior to his time at BIO, Mr. Greenwood represented Pennsylvania's Eighth District in the U.S. House of Representatives. Before his election to Congress, Mr. Greenwood served six years in the Pennsylvania General Assembly as well as six years in the Pennsylvania Senate.

“Jim began a lifetime of service as a case worker for troubled youth which led him to Washington and his current role leading BIO,” said Spindletop Capital Managing Director, Dr. Evan Melrose. “We are entering the Golden Age of Biology, with our new understanding of disease at the molecular level. Jim’s contributions have benefit hundreds of research institutions, thousands of companies, and millions of patients worldwide. His work has created a rich legacy in healthcare and all of our lives are better today because of him.”

James Greenwood accepts the 2015 Spindletop Capital Healthcare Leadership Award.
